

May

Boston rally at 12 noon – Sunday May 1, 2011
Haymarket T Station – Rose Kennedy Greenway Park
In the corner of Cross and Hanover Street, Boston

After the rally we will join the East Boston march to the Chelsea May Day rally at 2pm.

We demand:

1. Stop attacks on workers!
2. Stop the detention and deportation of migrant workers and their families!
3. Immediate permanent residency for all undocumented migrant workers!
4. No racist profiling Secure Communities programs!
5. Money for jobs and education, not for war and occupation!
6. Unity of all workers to defend our rights
7. International unity for immigrant rights.

More information: www.bostonmayday.org

Sponsored by the Boston May Day Committee (Mass. Global Action, ANSWER Coalition, Socialist Workers Party, Socialist Alternative, Socialist Party, July 26 Coalition, Tecschange, Latinos for Social Change)

Endorsed by (list in progress): Boston United National Antiwar Committee, Centro de Trabajadores de MassCOSH, Chelsea Uniting Against the War, Circulo Bolivariano MLK, Dominican Development Center, Frente Uruguayo, Immigration Pastoral Center, Industrial Workers of the World, International Action Center, Mata Hari Eye of the Day, National Lawyers Guild - Mass. Chapter, NEFAC, Proyecto Hondureño, Resist the Raids, Sacco and Vanzetti Commemoration Society, Stop the Wars Coalition, Union of Minority Neighborhoods, Women's Fightback Network, Workers World Party.